

Where Strategy Meets Execution

We are a mission-driven, multi-certified small business delivering high-impact solutions across three specialized divisions: ProLink for program management and professional services, CYBERLink for IT and cybersecurity, and COHLINK for construction and facility support. With over 20 years of combined experience, we support federal, state, and commercial clients through strategic consulting, systems engineering, software development, staffing, logistics, and construction management. Our team integrates technical expertise with agile execution to deliver smart, scalable solutions that drive mission success nationwide.
